

Summer School: International Arbitration Law and Practice

Course Title	Dates of Weekly Course	Course Schedules
International Arbitration Law and Practice	Dublin 29.07.19 – 02.08.19	Day 1. The defining characteristics and purpose of arbitration. The advantages and disadvantages of arbitration. Institutional arbitration V. Ad Hoc arbitration, Arbitral institutions, the New York Convention, UNCITRAL law. Day 2. Drafting the arbitration clause or arbitration submission agreement, the choice of law and the rules of arbitration and arbitration proceedings. Day 3. Appointment of the tribunal, tribunal's duties, judicial assistance in proceedings. Day 4. The standard procedure of arbitration and arbitration hearings, awards and enforcements, setting aside the award. Day 5. Written and oral opening statements, persuasive writing and oral presentation practice in a moot court setting.